FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mueller Prost PC Partner John E. Oeltjen, CPA
Named to AICPA/MSCPA Peer Review Acceptance Board

ST. LOUIS (March 1, 2012) – Mueller Prost PC is proud to congratulate John E. Oeltjen, Shareholder and Director of Manufacturing and Distribution Services, on his recent appointment to the AICPA/MSCPA Peer Review Acceptance Board for Missouri.

Mr. Oeltjen will serve a one year term on the East Report Acceptance Committee. This Board reviews all Peer Reviews submitted to the state for review before acceptance and provides feedback as to the necessary actions or findings by the peer reviewers and their clients.

Mr. Oeltjen has also been named Co-Champion of the PKF North America Community of Practice Committee, where he will lead efforts of member firms to share best practices and expand capabilities.

John E. Oeltjen is a widely known and respected professional, offering more than 30 years of business leadership and consulting experience. He began his 20-year public accounting career with a “Big 4” firm, where he served as lead partner for the St. Louis Regional Middle Market practice, leading its rapid revenue growth and expansion. John also holds 12 years of experience in the private sector, where his titles included President, Chief Operating Officer and part owner in various manufacturing and distribution businesses that saw significant increases in operational efficiencies and profitability under his watch.
